Happy Tails

Q3 2014

Cuddles (14-04)

Adopted by: Sherry

First, I want to thank GRRIN for rescuing me. They literally saved my life. I have Addison's Syndrome. They brought me up from Kansas and placed me with my awesome foster dad, Bob. He cared for me, loved me and spoiled me. He also helped pick out a super new furever home for me.

I was surprised that Mom has a lot of other fur babies. I have a chocolate lab sister, Amber. We have finally made friends and love to play "Chew My Face Off" and "Don't You Want This Toy?" I also have two feline sisters, Noire and Miss Priss. They are cool and pretty much mind their own business. Then there is my feline brother, Chip. He is such a pain! He has been sleeping all over MY pillow. Oh yes, I have two guinea pig brothers, Ace and Alex. I find them really intriguing, especially when they talk. Other than the cat brat brother, life here is quiet and comfortable. I have everything well in paw. Thanks again, for my rescue and for all the other goldens in need.

Katie (05-36)

It looks like Katie will remain in her GRRIN foster home "forever." Katie is the perfect fit and we are glad that this sweet senior won't have to move again. Keep an eye out for Katie's final story.

Jake (14-15)

Jake is going to be adopted by his foster family! He's settled in so nicely to his new home that he asked to stay there "forever." Watch for Jake's "happy tail," coming soon.

Remi (14-16)

Watch for Remi's "happy tail!"

Teddy Bear

Addy (14-12)

Adopted by: Eric, Jodi & Taryn

Hi, everyone! I'm Addison, but you can call me "Addy." I moved in with my "forever" family and my mom and dad, Jodi and Eric, and my sister, Taryn, made me feel right at home. I play dress up with my sis, go to Starbucks with Mom and out to the Farmer's market with Dad. I also enjoy snuggling on the sofa, long walks with Mom and Dad and I'll never turn down a good game of tug of war.

My sister is starting violin lessons this fall and I'm trying to talk Mom and Dad into voice lessons so we can perform duets. I love to sing along whenever she practices! I love car rides, short or long, so mom and dad make sure to take me along whenever they can. Well, nice to meet you all! Gotta go—the squirrels are waiting!
